HTML Lab -INTE Schedule (2025)

In this lab, you will practice building a basic HTML page that uses tables. Upload your finished document to D2L by Tuesday, Feb 4 before class. You should have only 1 file to upload. The file should be named: INTESchedule25.html. Your HTML file should have no external links. Use no other technologies (CSS, JavaScript) for this assignment.

Implement that following table as a HTML table. Use row span or column span as needed. The overall design decision is up to you, but the content of the table must remain.
